Rockville, MD (PRWEB) March 01, 2011

PMM Companies (PMM), a janitorial and facility maintenance company, is pleased to announce the recent opening of a new office in Washington DC. For PMM, the new office space means improved client service and will allow the company to accommodate growing client needs.

“The new office will provide greater efficiency in how we serve clients. We are now able to position an entire client services department in the same area of the buildings we service in Washington DC. We expect this to improve internal and external communication, and most importantly our speed in responding to clients’ requests, questions, needs and concerns,” said Vice President, Mitch Lustig.

The company has plans to continue expanding its customer base and at the same time retaining the excellent customer service and personal touch expected from a mid-size company.
